

2nd Croatian Hungarian Summer School

“Croatian and Hungarian Public Administration and Constitutional History 1848-1991.”

Zagreb, July 18-20th, 2017.

Council Hall, Trg marsala Tita 14/ 2nd floor

Tuesday, July 18th

Arrival to Zagreb

Accommodation

17.00-19.30 Organised free-time program

19.30 Welcome Dinner

Wednesday, July 19th

09.00-09.05 Vice Dean's welcome speech

09.05-09.50 Professor's Lecture (Ivan KOSNICA)

10.00-12.35 Student presentations (with a coffee break)

- 10.00-10.15 Alen ŠUKURICA: Constitutional position of Croatia-Slavonia according to the Croatian-Hungarian Compromise
- 10.20-10.35 Luca VARGA: The comparison of the Croatian and Hungarian public administration after the Compromise
- 10.40-10.55 Darija ŽELJKO: Heimatsrecht in Croatia-Slavonia 1868-1918

11.00-11.25 Coffee break

- 11.25-11.40 Rebeka ERDŐSI: Freedom of religion: development of religious freedom in the common constitutional history
- 11.45-12.00 Adelheid Ágnes NAGY: The role and significance of the „press code of '48” in the Hungarian regulation of Press Law
- 12.05-12.20 Lilla Judit BARTUSZEK: The beautiful Budapest – the formation and participation of the capital in the system of the state administration
- 12.25-12.40 Rita Bernadett ANGELI: „Open and close” – the final points of the educational politics during the dualism
- 12.45-13.00 Patrik SZABÓ: Women's suffrage in Hungary and abroad

13.00 Lunch

14.30-15.15 Professor's Lecture (Gergely GOSZTONYI)

15.20-17.00 Student presentations (with a coffee break)

- 15.20-15.35 András SZABÓ: The regulation of the exceptional power between 1848 and World War II
- 15.40-15.55 Matija PLAŠĆ: Constitutionality in the First Yugoslavia 1918-1941
- 16.00-16.15 Martina PROTEGA: Political rights and freedoms in the Banovina of Croatia 1939-1941.
- 16.20-16.35 Ana TURIĆ: Constitutional position of Croatia in the federal and republic Constitution of 1974.
- 16.40-16.55 Mateo VLAČIĆ: Citizenship in communist Croatia 1945-1990.

19.30 Dinner

21.00 Non-organised free-time program

Thursday, July 20th

Organised and non-organised free-time program

Departure from Zagreb